

Visa Delay Form

This form is to be used by overseas students who have had to delay their arrival in Australia because they have not received their student visa.

Billy Blue College of English - You should use this form if you will be arriving later than you planned. Students can start on any Monday.

All other Colleges - You should use this form if you expect to arrive late but still within the first 10% of your first course or you have approval to start late from your Head of College. If you need to defer your studies to the next start date, please use the Change/Defer/Withdraw form available online at www.think.edu.au/policiesandforms or from your Course & Careers Advisor.

Providing the information below will assist staff at Billy Blue College of English and Think: Colleges to update your enrolment and immigration information. Failure to provide the requested information may result in your enrolment being cancelled or problems with Australian immigration.
